MESSAGE FROM THE COMMUNICATION DIRECTOR

Wishing you a wonderful spring season full of happiness and good times! For the past two years the world was faced with the pandemic and businesses were suffering, we are happy that this is behind us and we wish for a quick economic recovery. All the best to you and your business as we head into 2023!

We continue to promote safety and compliance in the gas industry, SAQCC Gas will be exhibiting at the Big 5 Construction Expo in Durban from the 28-29 September at Inkosi Albert Luthuli ICC Complex (Durban ICC) and we will also be presenting at the workshop.

The CoC app is now available on all platforms. We appreciate the positive feedback and the suggestions on possible improvements on the app. If you're experiencing any difficulties, please feel free to contact the relevant associations.

EXPIRED LICENSES

Reminders are sent out two months prior to the renewal date to give you enough time to do a refresher course and apply for re-registration.

If your license expires your information will be removed from the website immediately and restored after your license has been renewed. You will also not be able to purchase and create CoCs from the App.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT ELECTRONIC COC

- We encourage you to frequently update your App to always be in line with the changes or updates available, we are currently on V2.0.0.12.
- The App is available on AppStore, Android & Huawei App Gallery.
- Ensure that a valid proof of payment is uploaded when you purchase CoCs.
- Please make use of the preview button before submitting the CoC to ensure that all the information is correct.
- NB: CoCs will no longer be received by SAQCC Gas, should you have any enquires regarding submitted CoCs please contact the relevant association

CELEBRATING THE WOMEN IN THE GAS INDUSTRY

SAQCC Gas hosted a breakfast session for the association administrators (training & registrations). It was good to put faces to the voices and interact personally over breakfast.

The ladies shared experiences on several things and challenges they come across from different associations, it was pleasing to see them coming up with solutions as well!
